

FIVE SPEEDERS IN CELLS AND TWENTY-THREE PAY HEAVY FINES

Magistrates Keeping Up the War on Autoists Who Violate the Law.

Five more men in jail and twenty-three contributing from $15 to $50 for as many new object lessons to speeders. Five different magistrates had held before them nearly two score who tried to burn up the roads and failed to get away with it, according to figures given out yesterday by Chief Magistrate Macdonald.

Not only were automobilists caught in the police net, but four speed demons mounted on motorcycles were captured and arraigned. One of the latter, Oswald Des Vaux, was fined $15 by Magistrate Levy in the Fifth District Court and, since he could not afford it, he was committed to jail for two days.

Four of the thirty-five cases are still pending, two before Magistrate Levy, one before Magistrate Ten Eyck in the Fourth District and one before Magistrate House in the Eighth District. There were only three who escaped this time with suspended sentences—Emil Wright and Charles Robinson before Magistrate Levy and John Lynch before Magistrate Ten Eyck.

Lower sentences for all who fractionate the speed regulations have been the order in every police court and now are avoiding the law's wrath. Chief Magistrate Macdonald in the Second District imposed $25 fines on Louis Greenstein and Wallace Minto, and when they failed to pay the former was sent to jail for four days and the latter for three days. The one other case in this court was that of Adolph Schleich, who drew a fine of $15.

Magistrate Ten Eyck also had two cases. He imposed a $15 fine on Arthur Lureh and Sam J. Dunneen, and in default both were sent to jail for two days. Twenty-five dollars fine was assessed also against three others, Louis Bergeson, Thomas McGinnis and John Martin. In addition to the motorcycle jail cases of Oswald Des Vaux and Arthur Gelsler, three other cases were heard before Magistrate Meyer $50 and Robert Sealy, John Ingersoll and Robert Huggard $25 each.

In the Seventh District Magistrate Nolan fined five men $15 each, including Arthur J. Williams, Glenn J. Tremblay, Arthur Hoffmann, John J. Gibson and Arthur Gelsler. Three fines of $50 each and seven fines of $25 each were imposed by Magistrate House. The former included George J. Mosley, W. Arthur Ball and John D. Diken. The other seven were Edward Namara, Sidney Ross, Elmer Green, William Donkerloot, James Cuth, Peter Baker and Frank Kean.

Judge M. J. O'Brien is Well.
PARIS, June 25.—Morgan J. O'Brien, former Judge of the Supreme Court of New York, who has been staying in Paris, is to sail for America next Wednesday on the Olympic. He is in perfect health.

Advice on Beauty by Claire Ainsworth

NOTE.—If the reader does not find the information wanted in the questions answered below, just address a letter to Miss Claire Ainsworth, 40 Patterson Bldg., Dayton, Ohio, enclosing self-addressed, stamped envelope, and she will gladly advise on health and beauty problems. The articles and suggestions mentioned are on sale by all wholesale druggists, large retail and department stores; or any corresponding dealer can obtain them for you.

Mr. L. C. R. asks: "Will you please advise some skin reduction treatment? In a year my weight has increased 40 pounds."

Answer: I have frequently answered this question, but repeat it for you. Obtain a grain of phytolite tablets in sealed packages with full directions as to diet and use. I have received splendid reports on the efficacy of this treatment.

Miss C. B. asks: "How can one remove superfluous hair on face and arms?"

Answer: By obtaining a sealed original vial of fluted powder and applying as per the directions with vial. It does not irritate the skin or scar it, and it prevents its return.

Miss E. J. asks: "Will you kindly advise a sure cure for itching scalp, dandruff and falling hair?"

Answer: I used plain yellow mayon two years ago and have never had a return of the trouble. Phytolite and professional hairdressers recommend it highly. It is on sale in 4-oz. jars.

Miss E. J. asks: "Can one overcome extreme thinness and an anemic condition of the blood?"

Answer: A diet of fresh milk and beaten raw eggs made into a flavored, palatable drink, and taken once each day, together with 3 grain phytolite tablets, will add a pound a day in most cases. Thorough medication and a half hour's rest after eating are very beneficial.
